It started with the idea that Punta Gorda was a perfect place for a Pub Crawl, so in 2010 Mike Colgan and Nick Berry were committed to making that happen all they needed was a good cause and a dream.

That cause was to fight hunger and the dream is a reality now. With the annual Punta Gorda Pub Crawl arguably one of the top three anticipated events in town, that is not a parade, festival or show. This event has sold out each year and brings people from all over the region as well as from locations all over the U.S. as people make there travel plans to come here for this event.
